

This survey is to help me determine what things might help you to succeed in my course this semester. Listed below are some things typically considered "accommodations" which I provide to all students in my course. Please indicate anonymously which things you might find helpful to you. At the end of the survey you may enter in the text box anything you think might be helpful that I do not already include. Finally at the final text box, if you would like me to know who you are, or would like to set up a meeting to discuss your need in this course please enter your name and answer the meeting questions.
